PROFITABLE PHILANTHROPY.

William B. Ward will not be permitted to complete his philanthropic plans, which involve the control of the food of the nation, without some attention from Congress. Mr. Ward's desire to aid the unfortunate and to feed the hungry took shape a few weeks ago, when he announced the setting aside of a million-dollar fund and about a thousand acres of land on the Hudson for the benefit of the poor of New York. Then he followed this charitable act by outlining his purpose to combine with his baking trust about everything in the way of raw material for bread making, from salt to fuel. But this great humanitarian has no idea of absorbing for himself all the profits of his enterprise. On the contrary, after he and his fellow philanthropists have acquired the insignificant return of only 7 per cent upon their investment, they will adopt the biblical system of "tithes," the same having been in use by the Church of Latter Day Saints. But unlike the methods of the church of the late Brigham Young, this Ward proposition is to distribute a tithe of all profitsafter banking the initial 7 per cent-among the poor Americans who find themselves unable to purchase the products of the great organization.

Robin Hood, of Sherwood forest, insisted that Friar Tuck and the rest of his merry followers should divide among the poor the swag which they captured from the rich. History fails to tell us whether Robin Hood withheld a specified percentage of the profits before ordering the distribution of the surplus. Probably his methods lacked that scientific accuracy of financiering under which Mr. Ward proposes a general levy upon every breakfast table in order to provide doles for the American people.

But the people are suspicious of the trusts, especially when they bear gifts, and Congress may demand a little inside information before it permits the bread trust to establish its pauperization plan.

A dictator couldn't get by in America unless he had a moral issue or a mighty good slogan.

CHEMISTRY AND THE SENATE.

It is seldom that the United States Senate i treated to an instructive lecture on practical chemistry. Ordinarily the public is given to understand that this body indulges in discussions largely devoted to politics; but last Saturday the Senate was given real instruction in regard to the chemistry of corn, glucose, dextrose, sucrose, levulose, dahlias, chicory, sugar beets and artichokes. The illuminating lecture was delivered by Senator Howell, of Nebraska, who, it appears from the Congressional Directory, is an engineer and a chemist, holding jobs in many fields of activity. The discussion arose out of Senator Cummins' bill to permit the use of corn sugar as a sweetening article without coming under the act to prevent the transportation of adulterated, misbranded, or poisonous foods. Senator Howell informed the Senate that-

When ordinary cane or beet sugar, known as sucrose, is consumed, in the first state of digestion it is broken up into dextrose -corn sugar and levulose, fruit sugar in equal parts by weight, and it is either in the form of dextrose or levulose the this carbohydrate is absorbed by the laman system in the process of digestion.

Having enlightened his colleagues thus, the enator from Nebraska stated that the Department of Agriculture had decided that corn sugar is not sugar, but dextrose, and if corn sugar is used for sweetening or preserving, it must be so labeled or come under the misbranded or adulterated act.

The learned and scientific senator then discoursed upon the artichoke as a source of augar, and the value of that common variety of agricultural product as a rich fountain of levulose, that could be crystallized from an ing its hitherto doubtful standing among the scientists of the Department of Agriculture.

Thus Senator Cummins added to his glory by helping the corn farmers of Iowa enlarge the useful fields of corn sugar; for the bill was agreed to. It was a real relief to listen to a debate upon a subject entirely foreign to Science and Senator Howell be praised!

Old Dobbin had his faults, but you dan't have to pour hot water on him to get him started.

DEMOCRATIC PROSPECTS.

For some reason or other not yet plain to many who run while they read, the Democrats appear to be waking up, and are beginning to make soundings as to the future. Franklin D. Roosevelt, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and Democratic nominee for Vice President in 1920, who also had the dramatic distinction of placing Gov. Al Smith in nomination for President in 1924, "dropped in" Sunday and discussed politics with some Demccrats who happen to be members of Congress. The gathering was considered sufficiently important to warrant the issuance of a "handout," in which Mr. Roosevelt took occasion to say that he was "greatly encouraged" by what he had been told concerning the efforts "toward securing a militant and united Democratic policy for the campaign."

Then Mr. Roosevelt got down to a concrete suggestion which, if followed, may aid the Democratic party in finding its way out of the wilderness. He said that "it seems almost inevitable that there will follow a meeting of the national committee in the spring for the definite purpose of planning an active campaign of education throughout the country on party policies and the reasons therefor."

The Democratic party must have a definite policy and a definite program if it is to get anywhere. Geographical conditions favor the Democrats in the fight for the next Senate. But one swallow does not make a summer, and a victory in the congressional elections this year will not mean that the Democrats will win in

The organization which has just been formed under that title is said to be the outcome of recent attempts by movvealed the workings of the practice of filing ing picture interests to control Broadway productions to the disadvantage of the dramatists. SOMETHING ABOUT REFUNDS.

Some critics of the administration of the income tax unit are making much ado over the matter of refunds of income tax payments made by the Treasury Department since 1917. There appears to be some difference of opinion as to just how much has been refunded; the figures letter from him just now. He is down in this varying from $583,000,000 to $700,000,000

The first income tax law was passed in 1913, giving the internal revenue bureau vast discretion. Then came the war; and the revenue laws practically placed upon the bureau the task of revaluing every piece of property in the United States belonging to individuals and corporations coming under the 1917 income

While the act of 1917 was repealed, it did not end the thousands of cases pending and still pending. The matter of valuation under the acts of 1917, 1918, 1919 and-1920 resulted in many mistakes of judgment in administration. was a "reasonable amount for excellent qualities of corn sugar, notwithstand- | amortization" and "depletion" remained a matter of opinion, upon which no two engineers could agree.

A reasonable allowance for depreciation may seem easy enough to determine; but on this point there are and must be differences of opinion. Refunds are based on the decisions of engineers and experts who have been given discretion under the acts of Congress; and the amounts of refunds have no bearing whatever on the honesty or good judgment of the employes of the income tax unit. Refunds are corrections of errors.

At all events, this is matter gone over the dam; and it seems to be a waste of time to discuss it unless there are evidences of graft or dishonesty or improper influence. None have been discovered.

GOV. BYRD.

Harry Flood Byrd, Democrat, was inaugurated governor of Virginia yesterday. It is not unusual to inaugurate a Democrat as chief executive of the Old Dominion. Virginia, the "mother of Presidents," has belonged to the Democratic party ever since the Democratic party began. No State in the Union has contributed more to the history of this republic, and while the inauguration of a new governor is not in these days a matter of national moment, perhaps, it is an event in the annals of Virginia.

Gov. Byrd won the nomination of his party in a contest that was one of the most interest ing politically that has taken place in that State in a number of years. He won it on State issues. The primary contest left no bitterness. The new governor enters office supported by a united Democracy. He has the good wishes of all Republicans. In his inaugural address Gov. Byrd declares that Virginia's opportunities are broader than any party. "I will strive earnestly," he said, "to be governor, not of any section or faction, but of the entire State and all the people."

The Washington Post extends its congratulations and best wishes to the new governor

> Gallery gods in the old-time "variety theaters" never got tired of seeing "Old Hoss" Hoey carry off the red-hot stove. No thespian of later years has succeeded in duplicating that "act." However, Philadelphia has produced many vaudeville favorites, and is in a fair way to bring out a substitute for "Old Hoss." He is Peter Ewell, who is under bond of $1,000 charged with carrying off four cook stoves at one time. When released he may repeat his stunt in a Philadelphia theater without fear of arrest and may draw as much as $100 a week, provided that the ranges are hot enough.

> Public Printer Carter reports that composition at a cost of $220,327 was "killed" in the government print shop last year. That means that after getting "leave to print," and after sending their manuscripts to the printer, members decided to withhold their brain-children from public view. Those who are compelled to the Congressional Record will rejoice over this information. The public would raise no howl if two-thirds of the stuff that is written during the present session is knocked into "pi" and thereby suppressed before it reaches the make-up man, even though the cost reaches half a million dollars. The value of the paper saved, to say nothing of the saving in handling the mails will be ample financial compensation, while the mental benefits accruing from the nonappearance of the "speeches" will be beyoud estimate.

While the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce is preparing to inquire into the alleged combination of French and German owners of potash deposits, surveys have been in progress in many of the West ern States with the idea of locating deposits of potash salts. The geological survey reports the discovery of a deposit of the mineral. While drilling for oil in western Texas and southeastern New Maxico, drillers pierced the salt beds of those regions and brought to the surface potash salts in such quantities as to warrant the belief that the deposits are of enormous extent. If subsequent operations prove the hope to be well founded the domination of the potash market in the United States by German and French interests will be checked, and this country may become an exporter, instead of an importer, of this mineral, so essential to the production of tobacco, cotton and other plants.

The Worst Story I heard today was told to me by W. R. Lubbock, of Edinburg, Texas. The first time I ever met this Lubbock was in Bloemfontein, South Africa, in 1903. Second, he knew his goods.

I do not mean that he simply knew the purpose and the price of specific articles I was examining. We were examining furniture. He did not simply know about these particular pieces of furniture; he really knew furniture in general. He talked to me entertainingly about woods and their seasoning, about the craftsmanship of the great furniture shops of ancient and modern times. I have often been argued into a purchase by a salesman; but I have always secretly resented the salesman's conquest later. The old man seemed never to argue. He informed; he drew; he won.

RAIL LABOR BOARD GETS 70 DEMANDS FOR PAY INCREASES

Passenger Conductors Ask More Than Peak Wages,

Sheppard.

Chicago, Feb. 1 (By A. P.). The United States railway labor board had before it today approximately 70 applications for increased wages or revision of rules, while the train service brotherhood filed with individual railroads requests for increases. Railroad officials said that the increases asked by the trainmen and conductors in some cases exceeded the peak wages of 1920.

Officials of the Chicago & North-western Railway were informed by train service employes, who filed demands, that the same demands were being made simultaneowsly upon all roads. The rates asked, seconding to railway officials in the upon all roads. The rates asked, according to railway officials, in the case of passenger conductors exceed the highest rates for such service awarded by the labor board by about $20 a month.

Cases pending before the labor board were filed by the Order of Railroad Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railway Traimen, the Lighter Captains union, the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, the American Train Dispatchers associ-ation, the Brotherhood of Mainte-nance of Ways Employes, the Railnance of Ways Employes, the Railroad Yardmasters of America, the National Organization of Masters, Mates and Pilots, the Bridge and Building Mechanics and Helpers, the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and seven other organizations.

New York, Feb. 1 (By A. P.) .-Eastern railroads today received demands for increased pay for trainmen and conductors and were given until March 2 to make their answer. The increase demanded amounts to about $1 a day.

Six body styles, designed and constructed under the supervision of Brewster of New York. All closed bodies automatically

FIRST, through professional channels, went rumors of a new automobile being built at Indianapolis—a car basically and fundamentally different.

Technical writers came to examine it; their verdict was It is more than new—it is revolutionary:

Then, famous automotive engineers, broad-minded men interested in all engineering progress, were invited to view the new car and came; they studied the chassis design, inspected the radically different features.

They became enthusiastic; unstintedly they praised the achievements of its designers; fair-minded, they granted its epoch-making advance over the conventional practice of the day.

And, confirming our claims, they pointed out the seeming paradox of a distinctly new car brought into being without incorporating a single doubtful principle or adopting any feature of an experimental nature.

So, you may approach the new car with full confidence that it is based on thoroughly sound, tried, and proven engineering.

We stress this point because you will, at first sight, be astonished at the truly remarkable mechanical progress and astonishing beauty embodied in this car.

You have been accustomed to seeing slight improvements and refinements made from year to year in the better American cars.

In The NEW STUTZ you will see embodied the progress of a decade.

The secret of this achievement is, first, the conception by its makers of the ideal car; second, a broad engineering knowledge and attendant research to locate the most advanced thought in every essential division of modern automobile science; third, the determination and the capability to combine all these features in one master car.

Some of the features of The NEW STUTZ are listed above. There are many others. The car must be seen to realize its numerous points of advantage. You will see a car in which is incorporated more basic improvements, more important refinements than in any other car you have ever seen.

Seasoned distributors, men who are recognized as qualified judges of automobile value, when told that the price of The NEW STUTZ would be under $3,000, expressed polite incredulity. For such a car, with such outstanding features of advanced superiority, a price of less than $5,000 appeared to be absurd on the face of it. Nevertheless, the price of The NEW STUTZ is $2995.

The new car—The NEW STUTZ—is now publicly shown for the first time at the Automobile Show. You are invited to see it; you will be missing the most important advance of the last ten years in automobile engineering if you fail to take the opportunity.

Hough Motor Company

Service Station 1909 M Street What WILLIAM BREWSTER says of The NEW STUTZ Bodies:

In an international experience extending from the inception of the automobile, I never before have had presented such an op-portunity for legitimately "hanging a car on the ground".

The chassis construction of The New Stutz has permitted us to approach very closely to the ideal in motor car proportions. The result is a car of very distinctive appearance, yet free from any suggestion of freakishness, whose lines and contour are exceedingly smart and, by their directness, suggestive of smooth, straightforward area.

No sacrifice of either legroom or headroom is made; on the other and safety of the passengers.

Brewster & Company, New York

What H. W. ALDEN says of The NEW STUTZ rear axle and brakes:

The worm-drive rear axle incorporated in The New Stutz is in-trinsically as standard and as proven a type as the more familiar bevel-gear drive.

This company has equipped thousands of modern, high-speed This company has equipped thousands of modern, high-speed and long-distance motor buses with worm-drive rear axles of essentially the same type. Even underthis strenuous service, worm-drive axles that have already gone three hundred thousand miles and more are good for several hundred thousand additional miles—and with no lessening of their quietness or efficiency. On passenger cars, the worm-drive should be good for at least a half-million miles, or longer than any car is likely to remain in service.

The hydrostatic brakes with which The New Stutz is fitted have been thoroughly demonstrated in service. Their principle is recognized as sound hydro-mechanical engineering.

The design of this brake gives practically 100% contact of the brakeshoes on the drums—with equal pressure applied to all four wheels. The hydrostatic system is a closed one, and being hermetically sealed, is insured against leakage and evaporation.

Clearing Film from Teeth Whitens Surprisingly

Quickly restores cloudy teeth to clearness

Please accept full 10-day tube of this new dental achievement, urged by world's authorities. Note the difference in the color of your teeth and health of your gums when film is cleared off in this new way

THOUSANDS go through life with clouded teeth, needlessly. Dental science proves this true. Cloudy teeth now are restored to sparkling clearness. A way found that clears the dingy film coats from teeth that old-time dentifrices failed to combat successfully. One's whole appearance is often changed.

Please accept 10-day tube to prove those results to yourself. You can work a transformation in your mouth. Can lighten your teeth remarkably, firm your gums to healthy coral tint.

That stubborn film . . . enemy of pretty teeth and firm gums Dental science now traces scores of tooth and gum troubles to a germ-laden film that forms on teeth.

Run your tongue across your teeth and you will feel it—a slip-ery, viscous coating. That film absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. And that is why your teeth look "off color," dingy and unattractive.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It lays your gums open to bacterial attack. Germs by the millions breed in it. And they, with tartar, are a chief cause of pyorrhea and decay.

Old ways won't clear it off Ordinary dentifrices and cleansing won't fight film successfully. Feel for it now with your tongue. Note your present cleansing method is failing in its duty.

Now new methods are being ed. A dentifrice called Pepso-ent—different in formula, action and effect from any other known Largely on dental advice, the world has turned to this method.

ELDRIDGE SAYS SPEED ROOT OF TRAFFIC EVIL

Tells Takoma Citizens That Pedestrians Should Be Regulated.

The desire for speed was named as the root of Washington's traffic evils by Traffic Director M. O. Eld-tridge, speaking at a meeting of the Takoma Citizens association in Takoma Park library last night. There should be a regulation of pedestrian traffic, he declared, adding that he hoped that at some time such regulation can be realized. He declared that he should have the power to cancel drivers permits, and expressed the hope that he will be granted such authority.

TIFE Insurance is not a commodity; it is service, scientific social service. Its L beneficence, however, is not limited to paying death-claims. It touches society at many points and renders many services of which few people ever think. As policy-holders you are public benefactors, not merely because you have protected society by protecting your dependents, but because you are advancing human efficiency and human happiness through the beneficent activities of this Company's assets.

The assets of this Company benefit both the insured and the uninsured. They reach all—even as the rain falls on the just and on the unjust.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGES: During 1925 the Committee made 6,895 separate mortgage loans in forty-one States, the District of Columbia and Canada, aggregating $93,534,753.22 to yield 5.57%. These mortgages in detail were divided as follows:

5,151 Loans on residential property, representing a capital investment of $28,562,173.86, accommodating 5,940 families. 635 Loans on apartment and housing projects, a capital investment of $26,327,240.00 accommodating 8,117 families. A total of 14,057 families.

170 Loans on business properties, a capital investment of $32,801,731.10. 939 Loans on farms, a capital investment of $5,843,608.26.

Public Utility enterprises represent a re- of three thousand million dollars. Through your investment of over thirty-five million dollars in 1925 and your earlier investments of the same sort you have become a considerable supporter and a definite part of that great and indispensable modern development. Every dollar of the total investment in public utilities is hard at work adding to the sum of human comfort.

In the balance-sheet below the activities of the Finance Committee for the year 1925 and in previous years are projected on a larger screen. After eighty-one years of business the Company's assets on December 31, 1925 (taking bonds at market valve,) amounted to $1,149,471,556.02. We are not here considering the strictly Life Insurance, unction of that accumulation, which of course is its first function. We are emphasizing the fact that every dollar of that huge sum is working every minute in the public interes policy-holders seldom think of, something the public is scarcely aware of. You insured your lives in this Company primarily to protect your old age and your dependents. You performed good deed. Good deeds go far. They illustrate the truth of what Portia says in the "Merchant of Venice":

"How far that little candle throws his beams! So shines a good deed in a naughty world.'

Your policies are separate candles; they shine far.

Chrysler's record of the past two years looms as one of the most brilliant in American business.

America and the rest of the world have bought more than 280 million dollars' worth of cars of Chrysler manufacture since the Chrysler was introduced just two years ago.

In the quarter of a century that preceded the coming of the Chrysler, there is nothing in the industry remotely approaching this overwhelming Chrysler popularity.

Here is recorded a most significant tribute. Not only to those supreme superiorities with which the first Chrysler sounded a new note in motor car engineering and craftsmanship; but also to the later refinements in performance, beauty and comfort which-with the addition of the new Chrysler Imperial "80" to the Chrysler "70" and the Chrysler "58"-have immeasurably increased Chrysler's leadership.

A Message to the Million and More BUICK owners

TODAY, every automobile owner in America faces the possibility of a substantial increase in the cost of tires, both for replacement and as original equipment on new cars.

Crude rubber has advanced in price approximately 150% during the past twelve months.

In a letter from the Secretary of Commerce, Herbert Hoover, to Senator Arthur Capper, written late in December, the reason for this condition is described as follows:

"The control of rubber production in the British East Indies was organized under the Stevenson Plan in 1922. That area produces about 70% of the world's rubber, and we consume about 70% of the world's rubber. At the time the plan was put into effect by Colonial legislation the claim was made that its purpose was to assure a fair price to the growers. The Growers Committee stated that such a fair price would be from fifteen to eighteen pence (30 to 36¢) per pound. Exhaustive investigations of the Department of Commerce showed that at that price the capital invested in the industry would earn an annual average profit of from 15 to 25 per cent.

"At the price declared by the price-fixing body as 'fair' to them, our next year's supply would cost us about $324, 000,000, but at the present price of $1.10 per pound, it will cost us $990, 000,000 or $666,000,000 in excess of the 'fair' price.

"These increased prices of rubber are a very real thing to every family in the United States. The price over and above

Save Tire Wear

These simple rules, observed by every motorist will help:

- 1 Maintain the proper pressure of air in every
- 2 Repair tires promptly when they are injured or worn.
- 3 Turn corners gently, avoiding scraping or burning tires.
- 4 * Apply brakes gently and do not slide tires in coming to a stop.
 - * Buick mechanical four-wheel brakes automatically cut down tire wear by applying the pressure to all four tires instead of only two.

the so-called 'fair' price means an increased charge of probably $20 or $30 for each set of tires on a light automobile, and $50 to $70 for each set on a heavy car."

Buick Owners Use 5,000,000 Tires

Buick considers it a plain duty to the million and more Buick owners now using 5,000,000 and more tires, to discuss this situation, and to call attention to certain suggestions which Secretary Hoover has advanced to protect car owners against the threatened increase in the cost of motor car operation.

Secretary Hoover Urges You To Save Rubber

Foreseeing the hardship that an additional tire cost would work on the American public, Secretary Hoover, aided by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, has undertaken to reduce the normal demand for crude rubber 25% during 1926. He feels certain this can be done by placing the facts squarely before you, and by asking you to observe a few fundamental tire saving rules, that most people neglect.

With this aid from a nation of motorists, Mr. Hoover hopes to reduce considerably the consumption of new rubber, and perhaps bring rubber prices to a lower level.

Buick Urges Your Aid

Buick lends its unqualified support to the Hoover program and urges every Buick owner to add his cooperation. You are not asked to drive less—only to drive with more consideration for your tires. In this way, the tire economy which Buick has designed into Buick motor cars may be realized to its fullest extent.

On this page you will find the driving suggestions offered by Secretary Hoover. Observance of these rules will make us a nation of more thrifty tire users. And save our money, not only now, but for years to come.

WIVES OF TOMORROW

Her Pastor.

DEAR Miss McDonald: I am a woman, past 30. Six months ago I met a minister about 40 years old. He came to the city to become the pastor of a church and I went to hear him preach. I liked his preaching and attended his church regularly. He impressed me as being a very fine man and very few men appeal to me. His wife had died about a year before. I liked his appearance very much—the always looked so immaculate. And I used to find myself feeling badly when I saw him talking to other women. I did not think about the time and at the same time to come. Whenever I encouraged him in any way he always respondation in any way he always respondation in the very mean thing to encourage him when I was not sure down the weight him and then just turn him down. He married a woman with money and it would seem he had everything that could be desired in her. I think he is very weil satisfied indeed. I can't help but think if I had encouraged him I might have been in her place today. I would have all I would wish to have it at the time and at the same time.

I caught him several times looking right into my eyes and used to wonder why he did it. I remember one night when he was reading the scripture that his voice sounded like the sweetest of music to me.

The man responsible for this opinion is Dr. L. L. Lumsden, of the United States public health service. The farmer, his wife and his child have come pretty near standing still in the same period. One reason has been the lack of county health de-partments. NATS TRADE ZACH AND BALLOU TO BROWNS FOR BUSH, TOBIN ARRIS has announced that now that his club has gotten somewhere in the baseball world, its policy is to build from season to season rather than for the future. On this basis, he may get more benefits from Bush in the coming campaign than could be expected from Ballou, but the Brownies undoubtedly will benefit in the long run.

It also looks as though Zachary might prove more helpful to Sisler than will Tobin to the Nats, as it is almost a certainty that Johnny will not be counted upon as a Harrisian regular, and old Jezebel Tecumseh is likely to "bust loose" with another good season.

Since the firm of Giffith & Harris has won both fame and fortune through its ability to get the best of the bargain in the antique market, it is not surprising to find that for Bush and Tobin, Bush's junior by but a year, the Nationals will surrender Zachary and Ballou. It has been customary to refer to the Washington left-hand flinger as "Old Man" Zachary but in reality his baseball days began in 1919 and Ballou is just making his bow.

The passing of Ballou is the jeaton of the Buccos and the Cards were only two points from the top in fielding.

After mulling over these figures during the winter the Card pilot has come to the conclusion that he isn't far from the flag, which St. Louis has waited for these many years, or ever since Charles Comiskey showed the world how to play first base, while Chris von der Ahe was counting the nickels at the gate.

He did the same thing more than once after that and to this column gave some indication of being another Marberry in the rough. Sisler demonstrated last year that he has a way with young pitchers, just as Harris has with the veterans. He may make a master workman out of the raw material that Ballou has at his command now. Releasing Ballou appears to be the biggest trading gamble that Harris has taken yet.

The beating about the Bush in which Harris and Sisler have been engaging seems to have produced results.

Why talk of fighting when Dempsey can draw $10,000 a day as a "come-on" for a Florida real estate firm?

"NEGLECTED" ISSUES RISE Sale

New York, Feb. 1 (By the Associated Press).-Tighter money 12 conditions imposed some restraint on bond trading today but failed to hamper United States or foreign government obligations, the strength of which gave the market a firm appearance. Virtually all of the United States Virtually all of the United States government bonds duplicated or eclipsed their previous high records for 1926. Buying of these issues reflected the growing tendency of institutions to building up their holdings of high grade securities. volume of January financing in history has led bankers to prepare, for several other large flotations. New York city is expected to invite bids soon on a $75,000,000 bond issue to retire corporate stock, but bankers so far have not been advised of the details. A $15,000,000 loan for a German steel company also is understood to be under negotiations. Public offering will be made tomorrow of $7,800,000 4½ per cent equipment notes for the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway at prices to yield from 4½ to 4% per cent. Later in the week $7,500,000 25-year 6 per cent debentures of the Standard Gas & Electric Co. will be placed on the market.

Dr. Wong, he said, was in a way, his guardian, as his mother had asked Dr. Wong to look out for him while in this city.

Maj. Pullman, the testimony said, had accused Wan of two false-hoods. Wan had said that he had left this city at 8:15 o'clock on the night of the murder, and that he had had dinner with Ben Sen Wu

Maj. Pullman, according to the record, had asked Wan if he had tried to cash a $5,000 check at the Riggs National Bank the morning following the murder, and Wan had answered vehemently in the negative. Other witnesses have testified that it was Wan's brother Van, who sought to cash the check, which bore the purported signatures of two of the murdered

Senator Capper sharply criticized efforts to shift attention from the local dealers to the operators.

"We can cross but one bridge at the time," said Senator Capper. The committee, he pointed out, is acting on the charges made by Senator Reed, of Pennsylvania, that the local dealers were profiteering. It has been established that the Senator was quoting prices at the mines for the cheaper Pennsylvania and Fairmont coal and Washington prices for the higher grade Pocahontas and New River coal.

Reason For Margin Sought But, Senator Capper explained the committee has developed a

It is likely, he pointed out, that another committee or the Senate itself would move against the operators should it develop that they are profiteering.
